Honorable Barbara Jordan
Commissioner District
111 NW 1st Street
Suite 220
Miami, FL, 33128

Dear Commissioner Jordan:

Congratulations on your election to this very special office.

On behalf of the Prince of Peace Moravian Church, I hereby request one of the surplus vans. Our church is a non profit organization and we offer a variety of services to the people in our community; especially our seniors and our young people.

If our request is granted, the van will be used in our Seniors' Club program such as picking them up for meetings, taking them on outings for recreational and education purpose as well to the mall for their organized shopping trips.

We are fortunate to have a number of children and young people in our youth program. Some of these are not members of our church but are in the community. We provide educational field trips as well trips to encourage group bonding and participation.

Our Social Action Committee would also use the van to distribute the food baskets to the community. This is especially important as this is being done now by members in their private vehicles. When we consider some of the places where our members go, the church van would provide a very specific identity and recognition than just another vehicle.

Commissioner Jordan, please be assured that we will do all that we can to use the van wisely so that it will serve its purpose for a long time.

I thank you most kindly in advance and I look forward to your positive response.

May God bless you abundantly.

Yours sincerely

Rev. Joseph E. Nicholas, PhD.,
Pastor
